Present : “Fran Halsall”

Internationally Acclaimed Landscape Photographer

Thursday 26th February 2015

“British Landscapes”

Venue : St Mary’s Church Centre, Moss Lane, Sale Cheshire M33 6GD

Fran Halsall is a professional landscape photographer who trained in Fine Art at University. She is passionate about the natural world, its history and its conservation, and her photography reflects these interests. Fran has a detailed knowledge of geology and habitats, especially those in the Peak District National Park where she lives. She approaches her practice with an artistic sensibility, creating bold and memorable images, of British natural habitats and geological formations.

In the last few years she has written and illustrated three books on Landscape Photography, featuring images of locations throughout the British Isles including classic views, important habitats, iconic rock formations, ancient monuments and man-made landmarks.

British Landscapes is a feast for the landscape photographers eyes.

This is a lecture not to be missed !
