

Internal Competition Secretary report

It's been a challenging year in which to run competitions for the Club but I'm pleased to say our members responded well to the challenges posed by the Government's response to Covid and we've run another successful season of internal Club Worker competitions. Because we were unable to run print competitions it was decided to continue with PDI comps for the second half of the season but to introduce some variety these were made themed comps rather than our usual fully open comps. These have proved very popular with our members and we are intending to continue to run such comps in addition to our usual Club Worker comps next season. The first of these will be on the last Tuesday of May and the theme will be "Light".

It's a great pleasure to see three different members winning the trophies this year. The PDI Worker Trophy was won by Aamir Zabzwari with an astonishing score of 119 out of a max 120. Congratulations to Aamir.

The Print Worker Trophy, awarded this year for Themed PDIs was won by Simeon Briggs. His first, and last, NCPS Trophy. Congratulations to Simeon.

The Club Worker Trophy was won, and thus retained by Annette Hockney thereby demonstrating that you don't necessarily need to win either of the above trophies to win the big one. Congrats to Annette.

We had 25 different authors enter one or more of our comps this year so thank you to them for supporting this aspect of our programme. Only six members entered all six comps which proves something; possibly you need stamina, or a good back catalogue, to win the Club worker Trophy.

That's all folks.

Best

Rob.
